SUNDAY SCHOOL NEWS

Today in Sunday School, our children study "Elijah Is Taken to Heaven." Enoch and Elijah were taken into heaven alive. Jesus, who is The Great Prophet, ascended alive into heaven for us and our salvation. You might discuss, "Why did Elisha want Elijah to stay on earth? In what way was Jesus' ascension into heaven different from Elijah's? What is Jesus doing in heaven now?"

CHAPEL YOUTH HAPPENINGS:

Jr. High (7th & 8th Grade) Bible Class begins their 3-week video discussion on the movie Luther. As we approach Reformation, we will learn about the events surrounding this Lutheran celebration. Each week, Bible study will be centered on a reading from the Psalms. This week it is Psalm 46:10a.

Sr. High Bible Class continues "The Story: The Battle Begins". In the desert, God's people fail on numerous occasions to trust in the Lord, so He allows them to wander aimlessly for 40 years. When that time is up, they face the menacing task of taking possession of the Promised Land—a land filled with numerous, strong, and ungodly people; but God leads the way into battle.

Wednesday Evening (6:00-7:30 PM) Open Gym, Games, and Bible Study. Our current Bible study theme: "Anything But Ordinary."

JR HIGH PENNY WAR CONTINUES THROUGH 10/30

To help raise money for the service project completed earlier this month, our confirmation classes continue their Penny Wars competition. So far, a total of $162.58 has been raised towards the project. The winning class will get a pizza party during the last class of the semester. All proceeds will benefit "Kids Against Hunger" - providing meals to hungry children in Uganda.
